There will be an entertainment at the Universalist church on Friday evening, March 17th, consisting of illustrated songs, when you may hear such familiar songs as "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys Are Marching," "Old Black Joe," "Yankee Doodle," and many others, illustrated by living pictures. The full programme will be published later.

Percy, the 12 years old son of E. F. McDevitt met with a strange mishap yesterday. As he was running past the Tomasi building he caught a ring on his second finger on a nail. The ring, being very tight, did not pull off, and as the little fellow was going at full speed it nearly severed the finger. Dr. Reid was called and was obliged to file the ring off the boy's hand. It was a very painful injury.

Assistant Judges Huntley and Wells have as yet made no move to appoint license commissioners in the towns in Washington county that have voted license. The side judges have sixteen days after election to make their choice. The present licenses in Montpelier run until April 15 and as no license can operate until May 1 there will be two weeks of prohibition in that town. The licenses in Barre do not expire until May 1 so that this city will have two weeks' experience with Montpelier's trade.

James Kennedy, a stone cutter, who has been ill at Mrs. Harrigan's boarding house, in Montpelier, was taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington Thursday night and at 3 o'clock yesterday morning died in an epileptic fit. The deceased was 28 years of age and unmarried. His home is in Northfield. He is a brother of Thomas Kennedy, the son-in-law of Oughtney Jangraw. He has been ill with typhoid fever and was taken by Dr. H. L. Watson to Burlington. His condition at that time was not considered dangerous. This was the first fit of that kind he ever had and his heart could not stand the shock. The body will be taken to Northfield for burial.

The Daylight Store

Most Popular Dress Goods.

[Copied from The Dry Goods Journal.]

"Plain and fancy Mohairs have been ordered out in very large quantities by wholesale dealers, retailers and dress-makers. Panama weaves, in plain and fancy, are second favorites. Eoliennes and Crepes are next in favor for dressy occasions." The above-named cloths are all to be found in our stock priced at our usual low figures.

MOHAIRS.

As you will see by quotations, Mohairs are first. These we have as follows at prices that save you a small profit at least:

42-inch Mohairs in garnet, brown and navy for only 45c per yard. (Had we said 50c the price would be all right.)

50-inch Very Lustrous Mohair in navy and brown, also black, at 69c per yard.

Black Mohairs at 50c, 60c, 69c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 per yard. All selected values.

Fancy weaves in Mohairs from 50c up to $1.50 per yard.

PANAMA CLOTHS.

These have been reported as second choice. By us they are as good as Mohairs, making a little heavier shirt. They are being taken freely for this purpose. Many shades are getting scarce and hard to find.

45-inch Panama in navy and black for only 75c. (Price subject to change.)

50-inch Panama in brown and navy for only $1.00 per yard.

50-inch very fine Black Panama (high lustre) for $1.25 per yard.

EOLIENNES.

These are for more elaborate wear, being light weight and silky. They are the correct cloth for evening or party wear.

Eoliennes in navy, brown, reseda and grey at $1.00.

Silk Warped Eoliennes in all colors. Best sellers are browns, navies, medec and blacks.

30-inch Silk and Wool Crepe Eoliennes in white, maize and light blue, for graduation dresses or evening wear. Price, 59c per yard.

Buttons, Braids, Laces, Silk Appliques, Gloves and Silk Linings to Match Any of the Above-named Goods.
